

Waterbeach Community Primary School

Curriculum Capture for Year 6 PSHE: Working Together

Key Knowledge/Skills
To recognise their own strengths and skill and understand how they are perceived by others. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> To be able to identify skills I already have and use. To know how to have a balanced view of my abilities and strengths. To be able to tell others about my strengths and skills. To accept positive comments from others about my own strengths and skills. 	To be able to persevere and overcome barriers to achieve a task and understanding the key skills of evaluating. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> To realise that we sometimes face difficulties and barriers when attempting a task. To structure advice encouragingly when someone is struggling. To break a long-term goal or dream into smaller, more achievable steps. To reflect on my own and others' contribution to a group work task.
To recognise influences on their decision making, including the media. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> To recognise influences on my decision making and understand the difference between inside and outside influences. To know what can help when I'm making a decision. To recognise that the media gives us messages and that these are sometimes hidden. 	To understand and develop effective group work skills including communicating, decision making and debating <ul style="list-style-type: none"> To negotiate with others to achieve an agreement and understand the role of a chair practising where appropriate. To be able to listen actively showing how we use our body language to communicate. To understand the strengths of others' in your group and use their strengths accordingly.

What do I need to do to be a good listener?

A Good Listener is someone who...

“When you talk you are merely repeating what you already know. If you listen, you may learn something new”

Dalai Lama

Key Vocabulary
Bias	A strong feeling in favour of one person or side and against another e.g. media bias
Communicate	To pass news or information to other people.
Constructive criticism	A helpful way of providing feedback giving manageable, achievable goals to work on
Perseverance	To go on doing something even though something is difficult

What skills do I need to complete a range of different jobs?

